Autumn 1 Week 7

Dear Parents/Carers,

A message from the Headteacher

What a super last week we've had before the half term break! We have been very busy!

Firstly, a big thank you to Year 1 for presenting your class assembly in such a mature, sensible and informative manner this morning. You certainly have learnt a lot in the first half term of Year 1 and more importantly have been enjoying your learning. A fantastic assembly showing all your wonderful work.

On Tuesday all of the Junior children enjoyed a Road Safety Message presented by MOMO Theatre Company who were hilarious! The children really enjoyed their presentation so we will try to get them to come in again.

All children in both Key Stages enjoyed their Spooky HALLOWEEN DISCOS on Wednesday evening. Thank you to the FOSJ again for organising. There were lots of brilliant costumes and some great dancers.

On Thursday St Joseph's entered the Leigh Lowton and Golborne schools' Curling Competition and won! Well done to Heidi Danson, Niall McCreesh, Joseph Frawley and Annie Marsh for representing our school so well.

Finally, congratulations to our school rugby team who won their second match last night at home against Sacred Heart beating them 8-2. Great news. Keep it up.
