Acting Headteacher: Miss M Daley BA Hons PGCE NPQH

Friday 31st March 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

A message from the Headteacher

I am so proud of our wonderful children. We have had a busy week of Assessments, rehearsals for Easter celebrations and then interviews for prospective head teachers and they have taken it all in their stride. They answered questions well in assembly this morning about persevering and not giving up and responded well to a tricky Gospel reading. Our visitors this week have commented on how well behaved and well mannered our children are. They are a credit to all our teachers who work so hard for them and most of all are a credit to you, their supportive and loving parents. Together we are a great team doing the best for our brilliant children.

Please come along tonight to the Easter Bingo - Doors open at 6.45pm - it starts at 7pm in the school hall.

Lots of chocolate treats to be won.

All funds raised go straight to school for our children.

Year 5 have raised £164.54 from their Fairtrade sales in each class and in the staffroom.

Huge thanks to everyone who donated Fairtrade goods or made a purchase.

Mrs Newton has asked if anyone has any unwanted artificial flowers please could you donate them to Reception class role play area.

Easter Basket Prize - 50p a ticket

Tickets on sale at the school office - Draw will be on Wednesday 5th April - Good luck everyone.

How are parents finding the electronic version of our newsletters and milk and toast letters?

If you feel you would prefer a paper copy of any letters please let Mrs Hartshorn know and she will ensure a paper copy is sent home with your child

Quote of the week

In response to last week's assembly a year 6 pupil said to me that the one change she was going to try to make in order to keep God's creation beautiful and only use what we need, was to save water. So she has been using less water when she has been having a shower. Another pupil in Year 2 said he was going to pick up litter to keep our world safe and clean.

Thank you children - you are looking after our world in your own thoughtful ways.

Enjoy your special family time this weekend.

Best wishes

Miss M Daley
