Autumn 2 Week 6

Dear Parents/Carers,

A message from the Headteacher

What a wonderful week of Music, Art and Dance as Key Stage 2 explained the symbolism of the Advent wreath in their Advent Service on Wednesday night. The quality of singing, the focus and concentration of the children and their maturity blew us all away. They are a credit to the school and to their families. Well done everyone.

Well done also to St Joseph's school choir who sang at Tesco Leigh yesterday and raised over £60 by spreading Christmas cheer, pure joy and the festive spirit with their performance. Super singing children.

We look forward now to the Infant Nativity which is next Thursday in St Joseph's Church at 6.30pm. Please could all Infant children parents look out for the letter which Mrs Melling is sending home about the arrangements for and running up to their performance. How exciting!

If you would like a personalised message from Father Christmas like the one on our school website then please email his magic computer on fatherchristmasleigh@gmail.com

Quote of the week – A Year 4 pupil said,

"I really enjoyed reading at the Advent Service and particularly liked it when we gathered together at the end and sang One Night One Moment. It was great to see we made all our parents happy."

Enjoy your weekend everyone.

Take care
