Summer 1 Week 7

A message from the Headteacher

Well Year 6 have made it back from PGL, safe and sound and shattered. They've fully enjoyed it and have certainly made some special memories for life. Thank you to Mr Breslin, Mrs Shaw and Mrs Drake for giving up your time to take our children and helping to make it memorable – there have been some funny tales. Well done to all parents/carers who joined us for our 5th Well – Being Wednesday this week. I'm sure it is getting harder! It was great to see parents joining in and interacting with the children.

A big thank you to our Worship Warriors who led our whole school assembly this morning. The message was that Jesus came to change people's lives. Although he has gone back to his Father in heaven, he works through us. Our Worship Warriors presented so articulately and reverently. I think you have been superb in your roles and are real role models to the rest of the children our school. Well done. Thank you to all our families who joined us for 'Afternoon Tea' yesterday afternoon – we raised £208.98 altogether. We will keep you informed on when we have spent this money on our school playground equipment. Speaking of which, some skipping ropes have been kindly donated by two generous and thoughtful parents. So a huge thank you to Mrs Trew and Mrs Valentine for thinking of us, we really appreciate it.
