Autumn 1 Week 3

Dear Parents/Carers,

A message from the Headteacher

Another super week with lots to celebrate:

Year 3 are improving their handwriting already (as it has reduced in size and sitting on the correct lines); Year 1 are flying with their Phonics sessions; Year 2 are enjoying their work on Traction Man; Our recently elected Councillors have settled into their new roles; Year 4 have begun their Sacramental programme; Year 5 have been cracking Place Value in their Maths lessons all the way to 1,000,000; Year 6 have started reading their Class text which is the fantastic novel 'Wonder' and the youngest members of our family have completed their first FULL week at school. Phew! A super start to this new school year - I am very pleased with all our talented teachers, fantastic teaching assistants and brilliant children. There's no stopping us now.

Exciting!

Quote of the week

When asked what have you enjoyed in your first full week at school, a Reception child answered;
'I have enjoyed learning how to write my name.'

Have a great weekend.
